

Meet Ronald B. Ziman MD,

Dr. Ronald B. Ziman, is a Fellow of the American College of Physicians and a Fellow of the American Academy of Neurology. He is double boarded in Neurology by both the American Board of Internal Medicine and the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology. Dr. Ziman has been on faculty at UCLA since 1978 as an Associate Clinical Professor of Neurology.

He is the President of The NeuroCommunity Foundation and the Medical Director of the Parkinson & Movement Disorder Information Center at the Center for Aging Research & Education (CARE).

He was president of Northridge Neurological Center and the Medical Director of Northridge Neurological Research where he was actively involved in pharmacological research evaluating new molecules and compounds for the treatment of multiple disease states including Parkinson's disease and other movement disorders.

Support Groups that will be having Ron Ziman, MD as their guest speaker:

Wednesday, February 14, 2018 - Burbank PD Support Group- Burbank, CA

Thursday, February 15, 2018 - Simi Valley PD Support Group -Simi Valley, CA

Thursday, February 22, 2018- Sherman Oaks PD Support Group- Sherman Oaks, CA

-----

Venues and time of meetings can be located at the PD Support Group Listings section, under the Parkinson's disease menu at this website.